

MESSAGE

corporation (BCIC) is well established and equipped with latest model instruments and equipment furnished in 50 laboratories located at Polash, Narsingdi.

TICI has been providing need based hands-on technical training since 1990 to combat and confront with the day to day industrial operational challenges. Thus, it adds value not only to BCIC controlled different sophisticated & high-tech industries but also other different industries and technical organizations like related departments of public Universities as well as private Universities of Bangladesh. It ensures the need and expectations of the trainees and training program objectives. TICI training programs/courses have well acceptance and high praise in the industry market and final year Universities students of engineering & science disciplines. It contributes to industrial development and economic activities of Bangladesh providing hands on training, real time troubleshooting, technical and operational training. TICI is involved in the process of transforming human resources into human assets of Bangladesh.